

Media/ Press Inquires

If you are a photographer, videographer, writer, podcaster/ net caster or blogger and would like to cover, create content, and/ or interview any of our presenters or staff for our annual Sacred Waters Retreat for Women of Color, please contact:

Amrita Persaud

PR/Social Media Director

smgeniusswr@gmail.com

sacredwatersretreat@gmail.com

Attn: Media & Press Inquiry

In your email, please include links to your website, podcast, blog, etc. Inquires submitted without proof of professional validation will not be addressed.

If you would like access to our events, we suggest that you purchase a ticket to immerse yourself in one of the most transformational events on the planet. Sacred Waters Retreat has an open camera policy in classes and workshops, but no filming of any kind is permitted during ceremonies or rituals. Detachable lenses, tripods or any other commercial equipment is not allowed without express written consent.

Under Tennessee Law, any recorded informal or professional interviews performed on site or during the time frame of the retreat with any of our staff, presenters, and or participants becomes intellectual property of Sacred Waters Retreat and cannot be published without written consent of Sacred Waters Retreat LLC. All copies of interviews must be shared with Sacred Waters Retreat free of cost.

Complimentary passes are only granted to a handful of media outlets. We receive many media request each year, and due to the high demand and limited supply, most media request cannot be fulfilled. Media credentials are only issued to accredited media members covering the retreat for legitimate publications/media outlets.